Student-Faculty Basketball Game

On Friday, March 5, a group of determined teachers was upset by the basketball team 104-99. Proceeds of $429 went to the Peace Corps School-to-School Project, sponsored by the service club Amicus.

Six teachers acted as cheerleaders for the faculty, as the varsity cheerleaders cheered for the students.

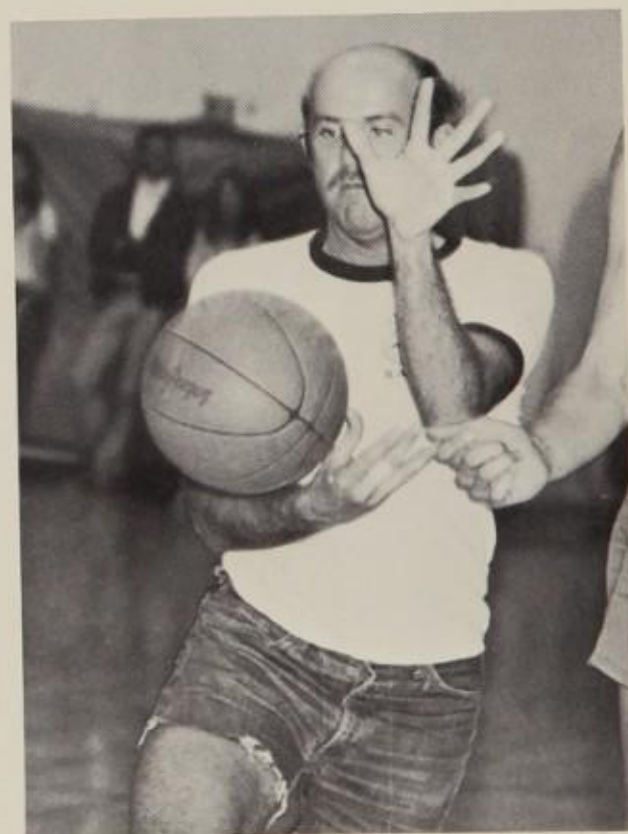

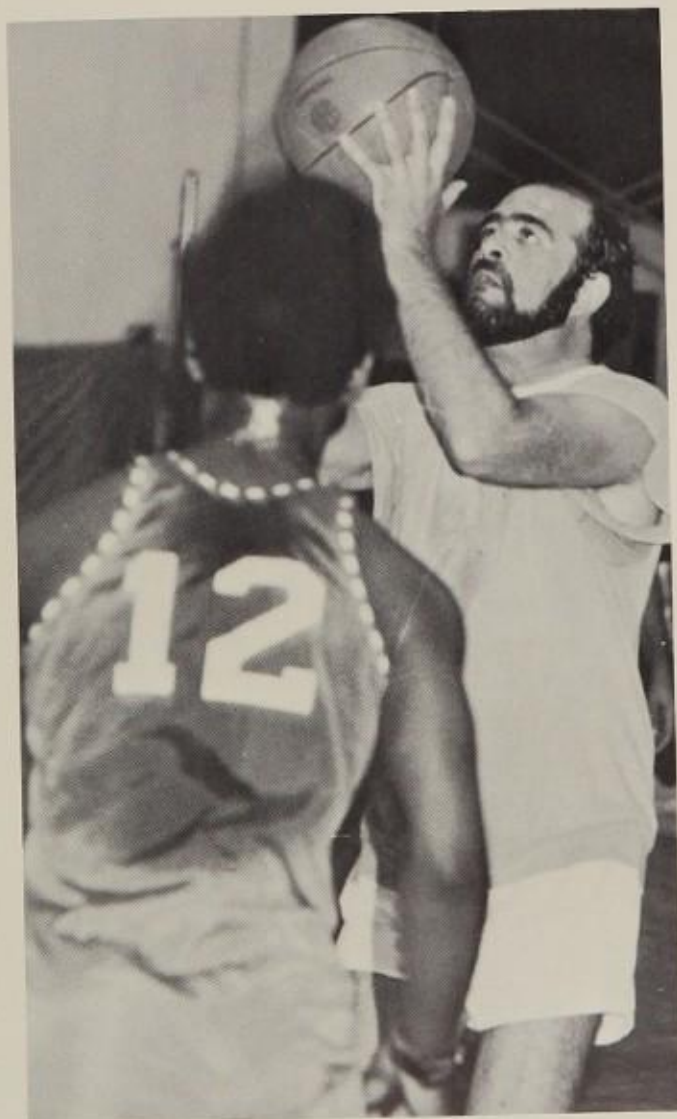

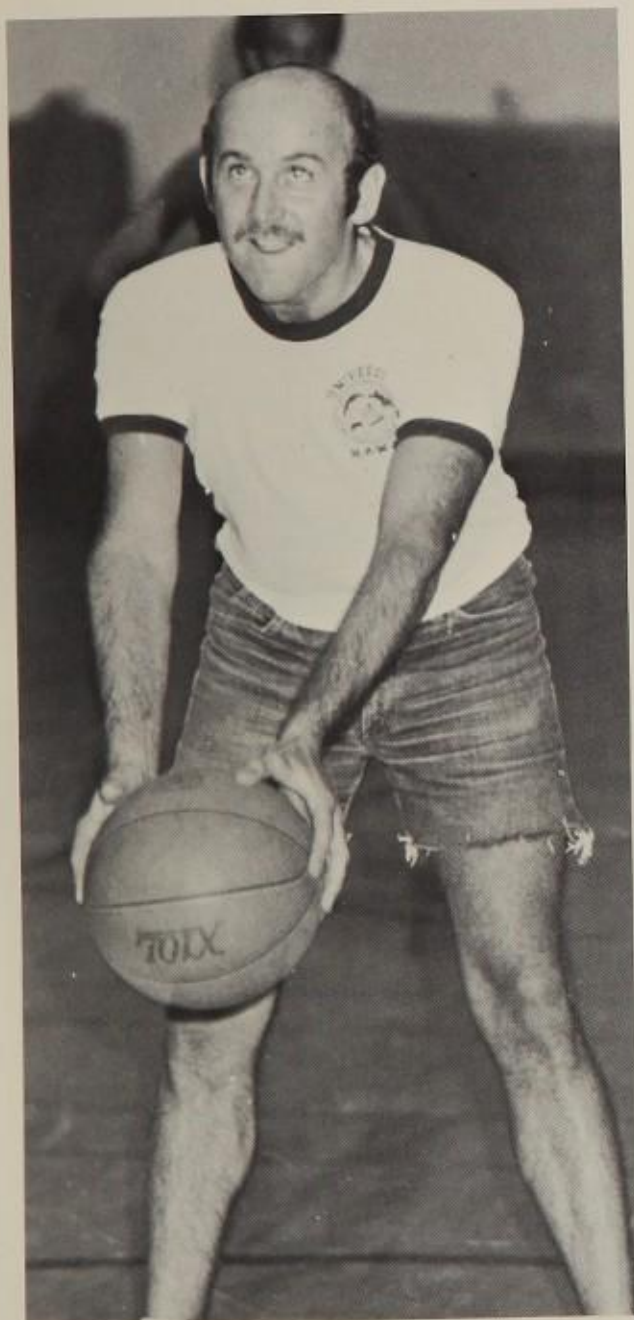

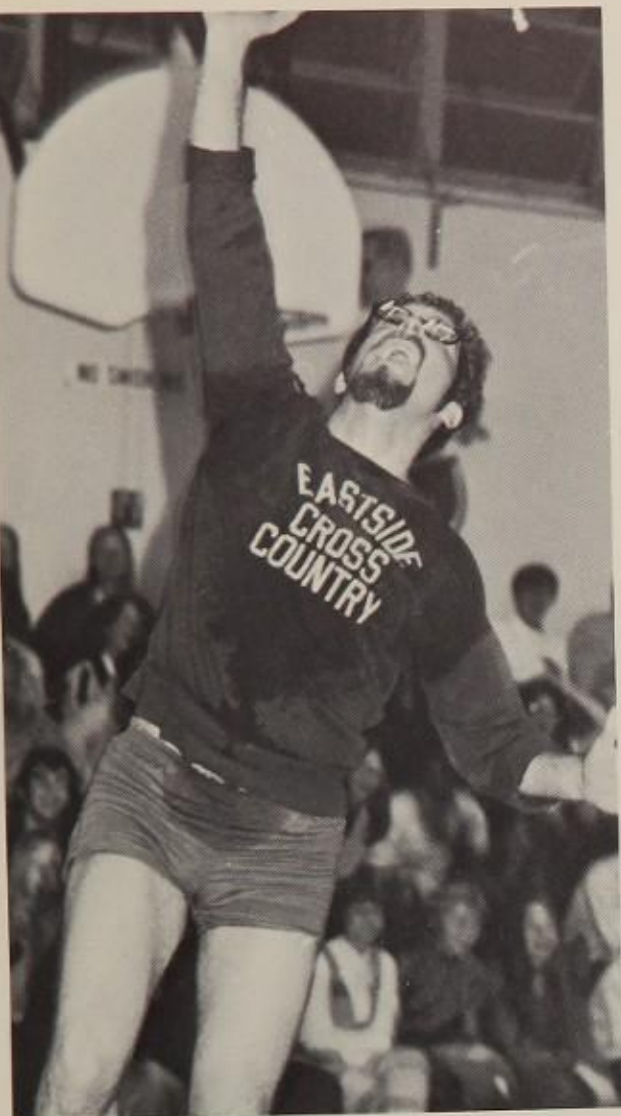

Faculty members who played were Coach Janssen, Coach Griffin, Mr. Odenz, Mr. Christie, Mr. Ritt, Mr. Hendrix, and star player Mr. Cunningham, who was expelled from the fourth period of play be referee Freddie Dawson.

After the game a soc hop was held in the gym where two bands, "Gypsy Sun Band" and "Renegade Blues Tribe" played.

Money was seen changing hands several times between Mr. May and referee Freddie Dawson, although no formal protest was presented.

Quill And Scroll

Quill and Scroll was an honor society for students who excelled in journalism and related fields.

Southwest's least active honor society held only two meetings during the year. The first was to elect officers, held in February.

The second meeting was the induction of new members, held at the house of Mrs. Staats, Quill and Scroll's sponsor. Mr. Jack Kassewitz, chief editorial writer for the Miami News, was the speaker.

Officers were: Ken Kimsey, president; David Brown, vice-president; Julie Eason, secretary; Amy Aidman, treasurer; Leonard Lang, historian; and Jeff Goldman, sergeant-at-arms.

Eagles Fling

The Eagles Fling, sponsored by the Drama department, featured Southwest's talented students. This annual event was held Friday, November 20, as the first activity of Homecoming Week. Among the performers were a ballerina, folk singers, and pantomimists. The acts were judged by a committee of P.T.A. members and first prize was awarded to the Gaine sisters for their modern dance performance.

The finale of the evening was the presentation of the Homecoming Court and the coronation of Queen Cathy Oakerson. Freddie Dawson and Joe Orlando emceed the program.

Play Production

Under the direction of Freddie Dawson, Thespians and the Drama Department worked closely together in producing plays.

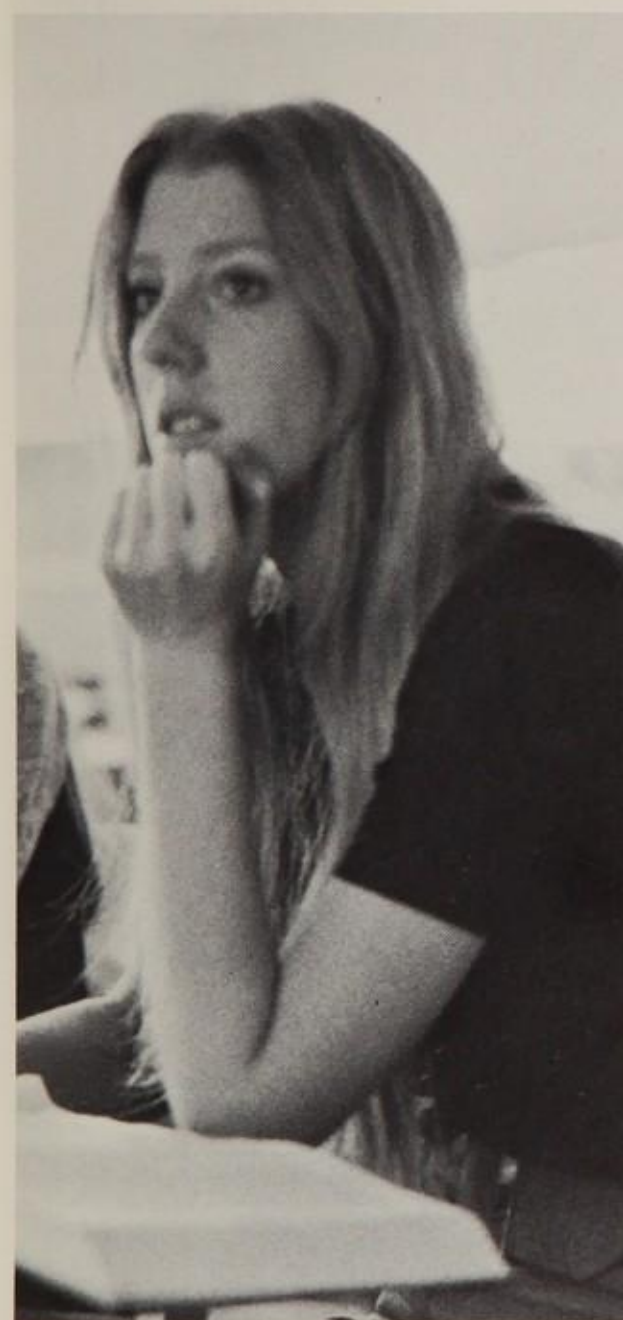

Thespians sponsored the annual Eagle's Fling in November. "Blithe Spirit" was presented on January 28 and 29.

During the latter part of March, the Drama Department produced a night of one act plays. Featured were "Gloria Mundi", "Balcony Scene", and "Gangsters in Harlem".

Head of the Drama Department was Mr. Washington.

Aquila

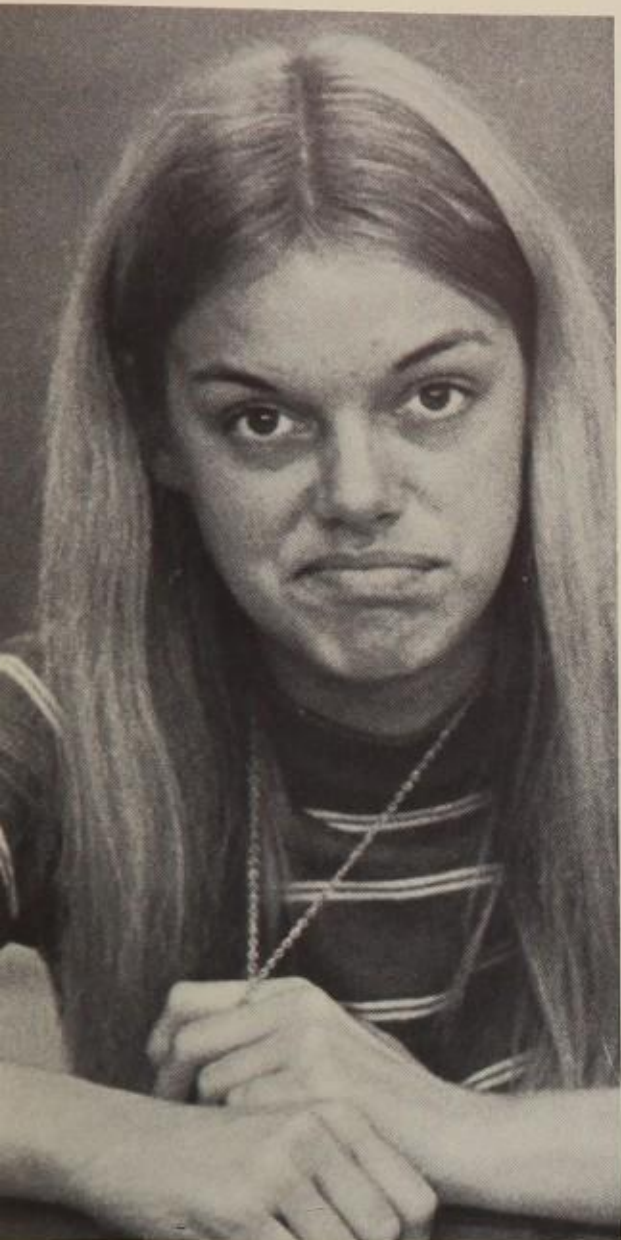

The Aquila's philosophy for 1971 was to create a book with a total view of the school year from September until June. Contemporary ideas were brought into the traditional yearbook with three new sections which were concerned with social issues.

The staff attended the annual Columbia Scholastic Press Association Convention which was held in New York at Columbia University on March 11th, 12th and 13th. While there they took in sights such as Coney Island, Greenwich Village, and a Broadway show.

The Aquila staff was the smallest in the history of Southwest. Mr. May was advisor. Editors were David Brown and Sue Silva.

Lancer

In its attempt to create a more relevant paper, the Lancer was in the process of being reformed in 1970. The first step was the removal of the Lancer Laud and Lancer Lady, and the Eagle's Eye was gradually stressed less.

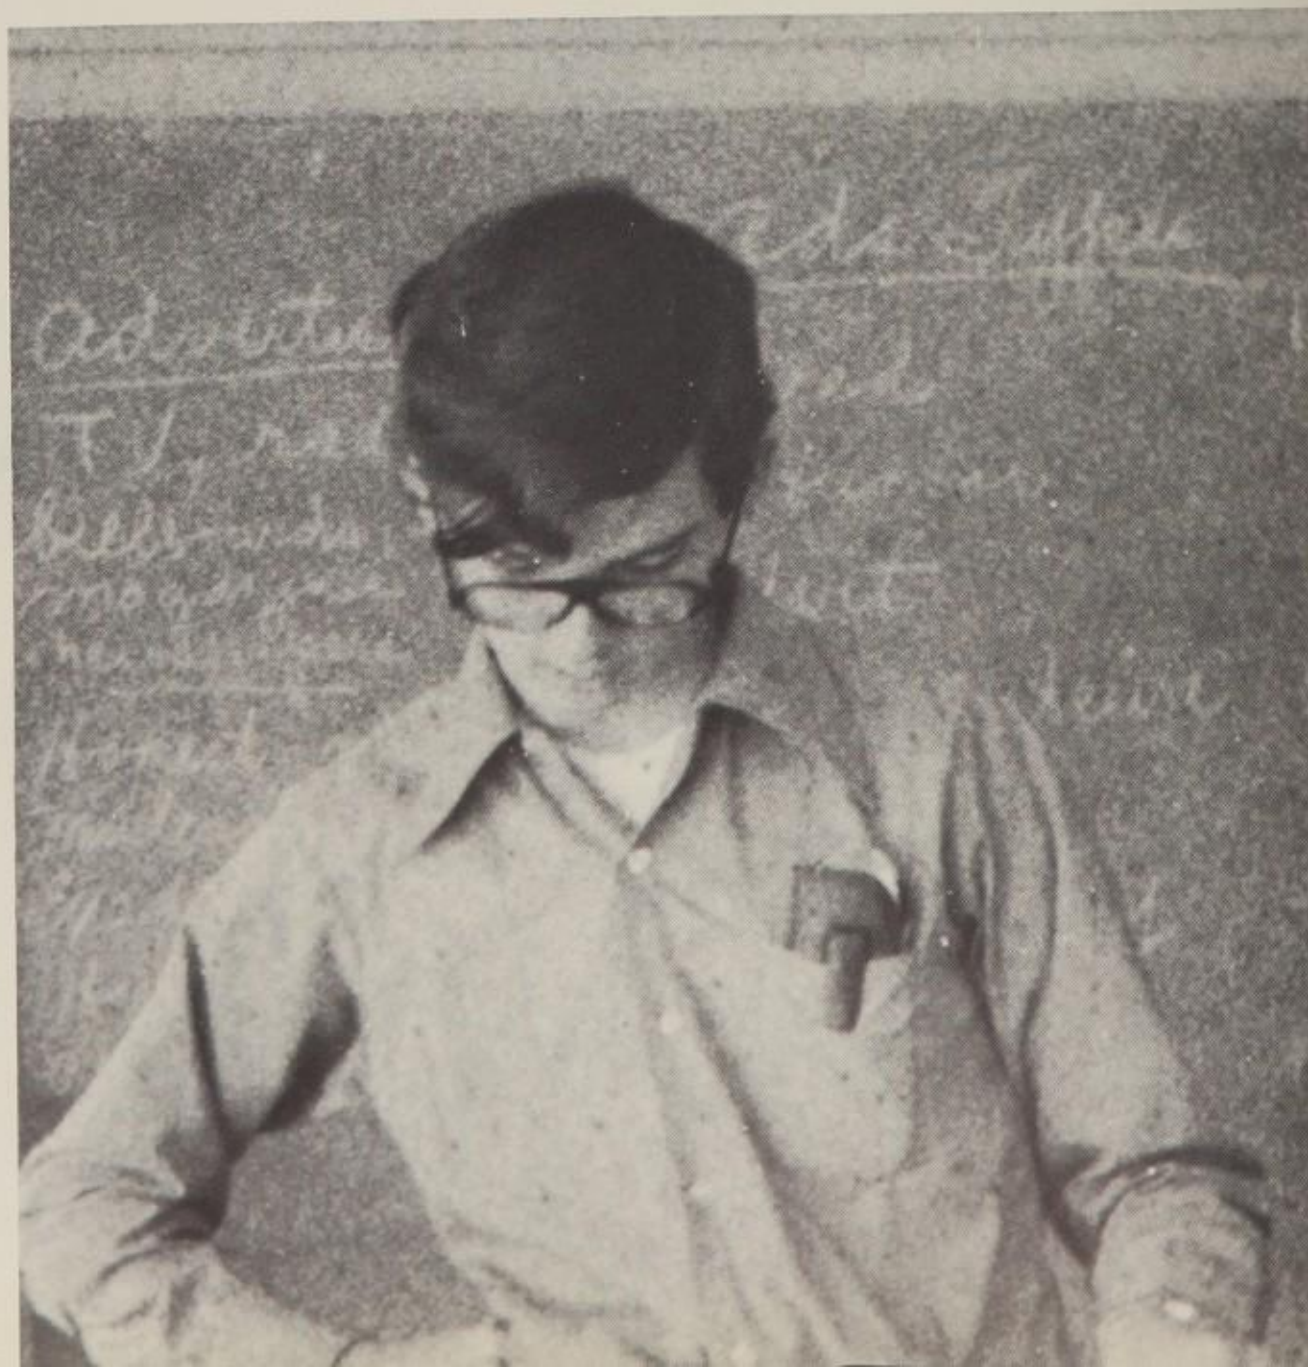

The paper's editorials were concentrated on subjects which would interest the student body and occurrences at other schools throughout the country.

The Lancer staff, under the direction of Editor Ken Kimsey, attended the Florida State Press Association conference in April, held at the Four Ambassadors.

Shining Wings

Creativity abounded in the annual publication of Shining Wings, an anthology of the original work done in the Creative Writing class. The class was sponsored by Mrs. Staats.

The anthology included selections of poems, short stories, and essays. The book also represented other students' work after it was recommended by the students' English teacher.

Orders were taken early in February and the anthologies were distributed in May.

Thanes

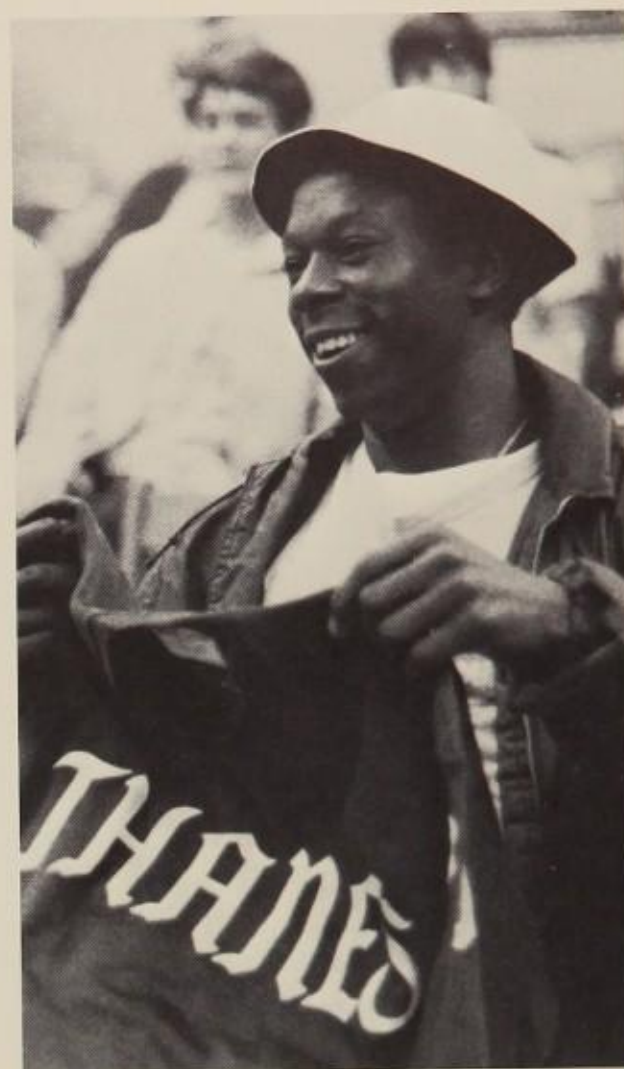

Thanes was involved in many varied activities. They worked with Little Sisters at the Haven School and co-sponsored a school clean-up. To raise funds the club held an end of the semester soc-hop and a faculty v. Miami Dolphins basketball game.

They again assisted at the Channel 2 auction and ushered during school drama productions. Thanes sold bread for the March of Dimes Bread Sale, and participated in the Walk for Development.

John Waterhouse and Danny Christofferson were presidents for one semester each. Mr. Christie and Mr. Moran were sponsors.

Chez Nous

Chez Nous was involved in many service projects throughout the year. Their first was cleaning up the trophy case, which was the inductees project. Later they worked long hours to make Christmas stockings for the patients at Jackson Memorial Hospital. Another of their projects was aiding a Chez Nous alumni whose home burned down. They collected clothing and other needed items.

Chez Nous was not all service though. They held a breakfast at Crandon Park in September. Later they sponsored a Christmas party for the school.

Officers were Phyllis Fleck, president; Forrecc Emminizer, vice president; Kay Temple, treasurer; Cheryl Johnson, secretary; Cathy Oakerson, chaplin; Cindy Williamson, communications secretary; Debbie Corson, historian. Sponsors were Mr. Lightfoot and Miss Shafer.

Yellow

Yellow made its presence known at Southwest with its many activities. Their most successful fund-raising project was the annual dog wash.

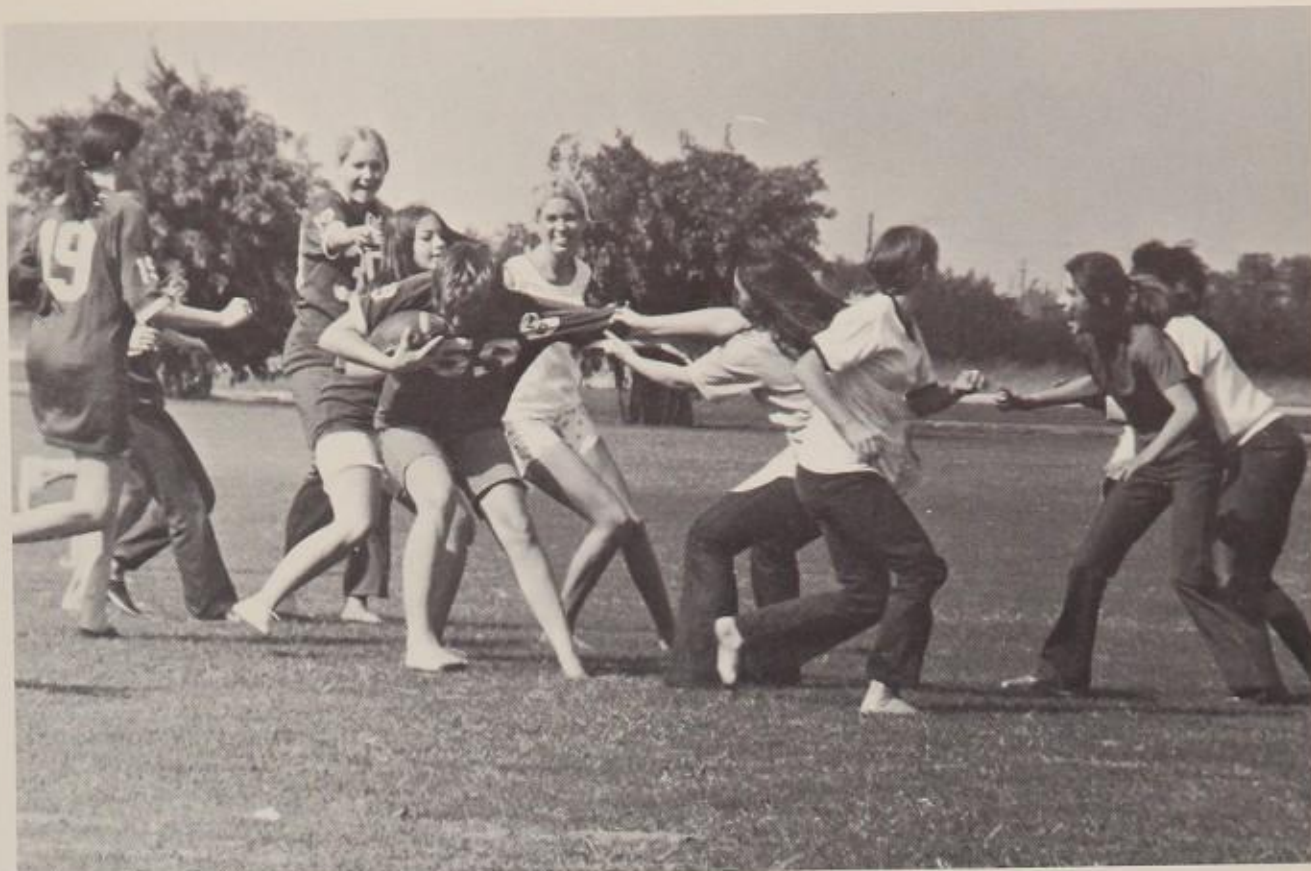

After the state and county elections the club removed political campaign posters from a large southwest Miami area. They also sold 500 loaves of bread for the March of Dimes Bread Sale.

All of the money raised from functions during the second semester went toward the goal of $200 donated to the Peace Corps School to School Project.

Yellow, assisted by other clubs, organized a clothing drive for the migrant workers.

During January Yellow played Chez Nous in a football game and won 38-6. They also beat Little Sisters 18-12.

Lyn Pannone and Vivi Perkins were presidents for the first and second semesters, respectively. Miss Stone and Mrs. Hagerty were sponsors.

Little Sisters

Little Sisters started the year by taking in new members and inducting them at a sunrise breakfast.

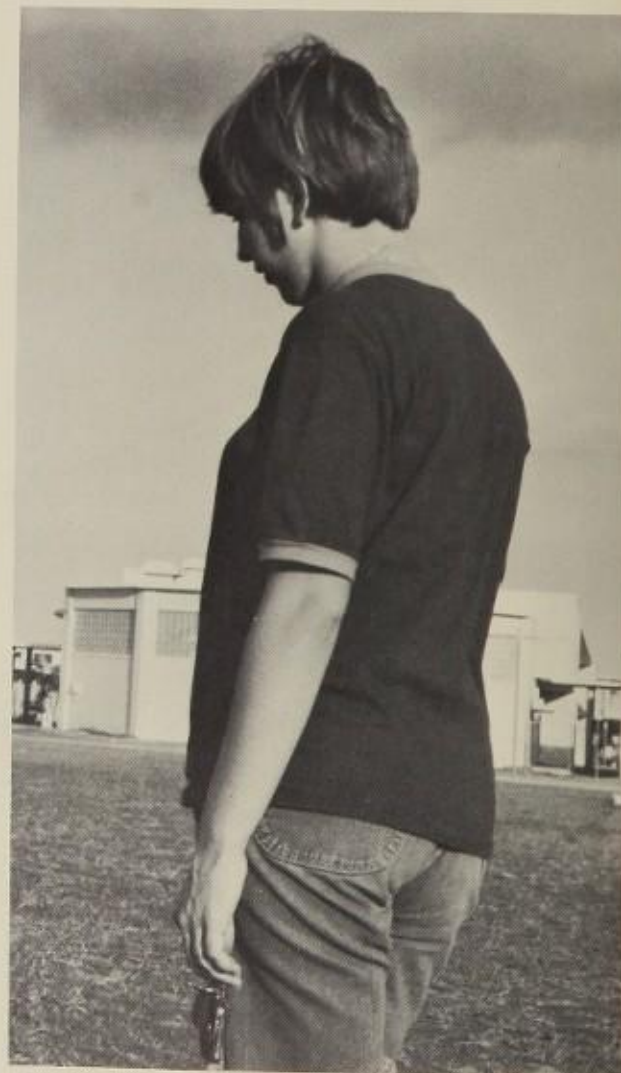

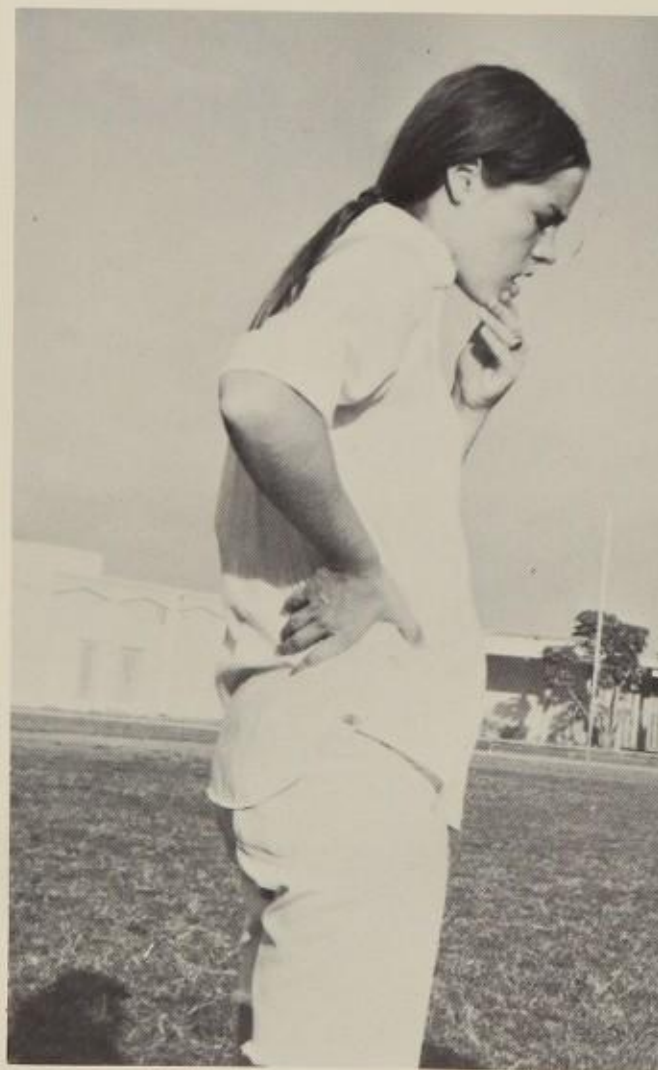

Some of their fund raising projects included ushering at the Spitzer Dodge open house and selling stationary.

Working with Thanes, they cleaned the school grounds, and for the holidays, members made Christmas stockings for the children at Haven School.

In March, Little Sisters walked in the St. Jude's Teenagers' March.

Among their social activities were a Halloween costume party, an alumni barbecue, and a Thanes-Little Sisters football game.

Officers were: Vickie Smith, president; Cathy Taber, vice-president; Linda Mar-racini and Sharon Mathieson, secretar-ies; and Nancy Richter, treasurer.

Amicus

Southwest's community service club, Amicus, worked hard to deserve its name, which means "friend" in Latin. Members and other interested students went to the B and L Migrant Camp on Saturday mornings to tutor and play with the children.

In February, Amicus took the migrant children to the zoo.

Amicus was sponsor of the Peace Corp School-to-School Project, an effort to build a school in an underdeveloped country. To raise money the club held a soc-hop in October, and a coffeehouse in April that featured student folksingers. Other school clubs were encouraged to help reach the goal of $1500.

Amicus members also sold bread for the March of Dimes.

Officers were: Sue Silva, president, Susan Patterson, vice-president; Gail Warner, secretary; and Sarah Hein, treasurer. Mr. Ritt was sponsor.

Conservation Club

The Conservation Club centered their year's activities around pollution prevention.

During the spring they held a clean-up for Virginia Key. Members of the club visited WFUN radio several times in the course of the year to discuss pollution and ecology.

Ronald Rosenthal was president, and Mr. May was sponsor.

CBE

Cooperative Business Education was a program designed to prepare students for success in the business world. Students in CBE went to school for half of the day and spent the other half working in an office.

At the end of the year, CBE held a banquet to thank the employers who had helped educate students about business practices.

During class hours, CBE students did various typing assignments to help Southwest. They typed the anthology "Shining Wings."

Mrs. Edwards was the sponsor of CBE.

Sponsored by Mr. Debrei, the Southwest Distributive Education program had a productive year. The goal of the organization was to train business-minded students in merchandising, warehousing, and related fields.

During the year contests in speaking, advertising, and other areas of business were held at the district banquet.

DE's major field trip was to the State Convention in Orlando on March 18-21.

Varsity Club

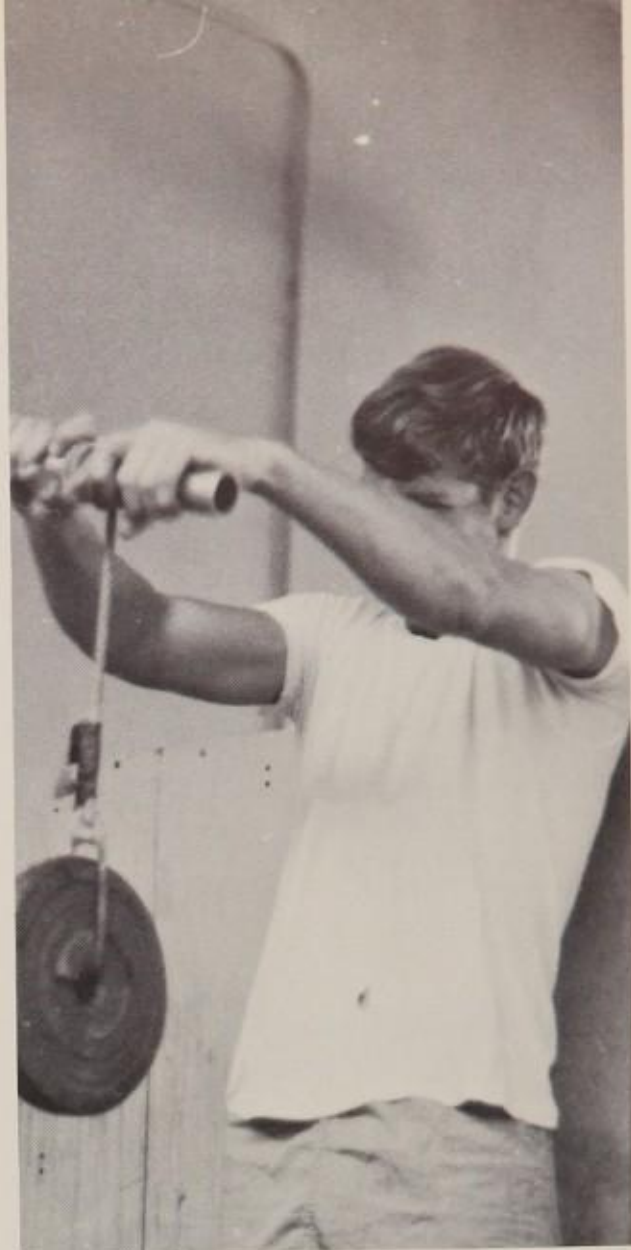

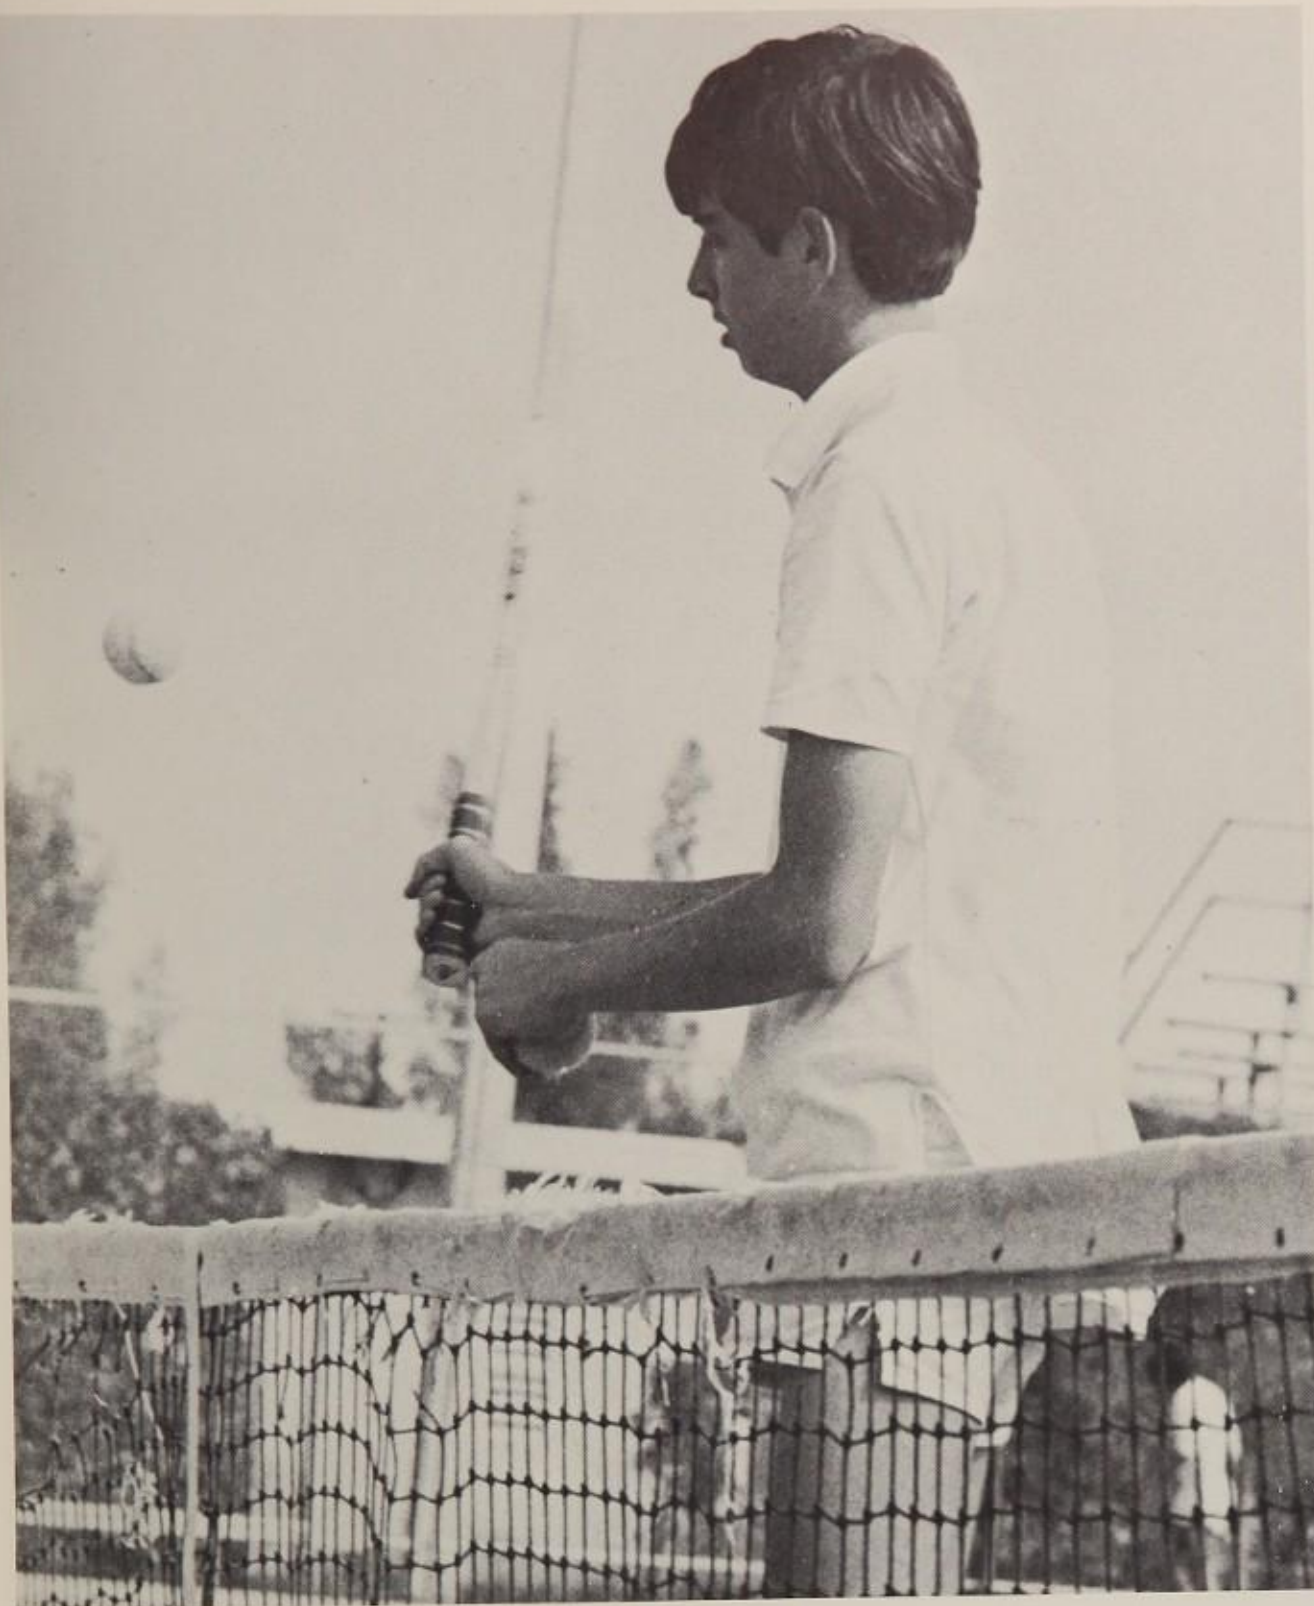

Varsity Club helped boys have a better understanding of all sports offered at Southwest, as well as developing better communication between the sports. Coach Jupin was sponsor.

Officers were: Craig Clark, president, and Johnny Williams, vice-president.

The club also sponsored a Sweetheart Dance in March, and collected for the Crippled Children's Society.

F.H.A.

With the purpose of training girls to be homemakers, FHA members met every other Tuesday night and continued their services in the home, the school, and the community.

As one of the oldest clubs at Southwest, Future Homemakers of America once again held their annual rose sale previous to Valentine's Day. Members attended the annual FHA convention held at Norland on November 21. The girls served the community through making Christmas decorations for Variety Children's Hospital. The club's annual banquet was held in May.

FTA

Future Teachers of America began the school year busily as they decorated the lobby window for National Education Week. That same week they kept up with tradition by passing out apples to all SW teachers.

Every member of FTA aided one teacher all year and in the spring, under the leadership of President Bonnie Soltz, spent the day teaching at Blue Lakes Elementary.

Mr. Ward sponsored the organization which familiarizes its members with every phase of teaching.

*upper right: Connie Mason and Janice Denton;

UN Club

Students who cared and were interested in the betterment of mankind in a more peaceful world could join the United Nations Club. This organization let students deal with international affairs which were happening in the world and were of importance to everyone.

Among the many things U.N. Club did, the most exciting was their field trip to Florida International University to hear Secretary General U Thant of the United Nations make his dedication speech.

Members attended a speech given by Hubert Humphrey at Miami Beach. The club also sponsored the poster contest held in October.

They were invited to a United Nations General Assembly at South Dade High School and at the end of the year they held a world affairs institute where students could hear speakers from Washington.

Art Honor

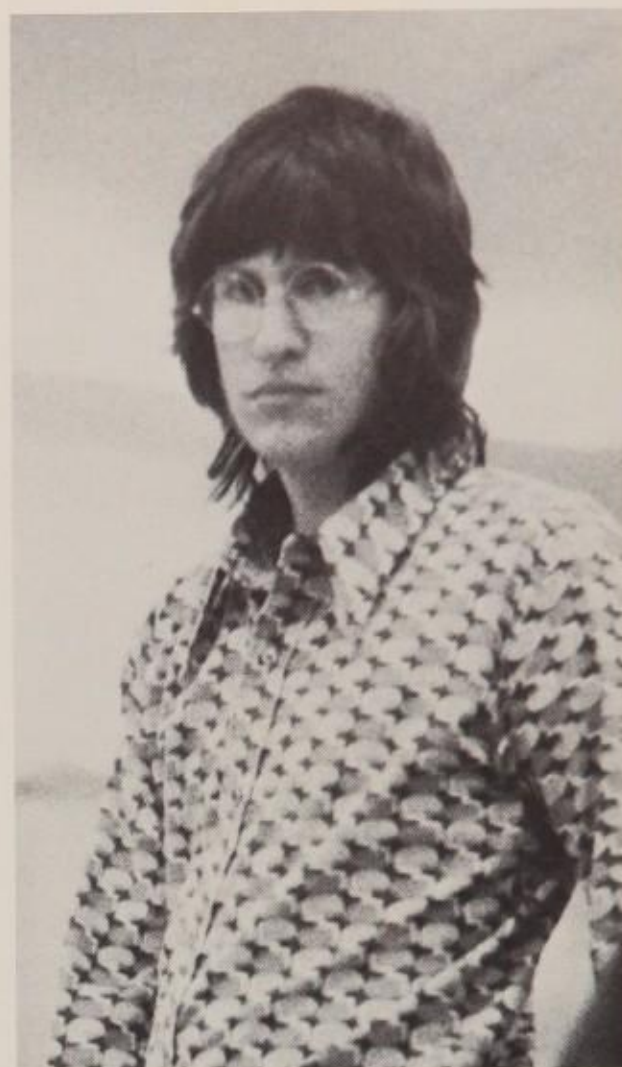

Art Honor Society expended much effort in art work to be used in displays in the hope of making the student body aware of the relevance of art in their daily lives.

An in-depth study was made by visiting various art galleries around Miami.

Officers were Paul Taub, president, and Gwen Morris, secretary. Mrs. Kowalchuk was sponsor.

Members of Girls' Athletic Association helped provide for the community by visiting the children's ward at Variety Children's Hospital. They also contributed to the Toys for Tots campaign, and participated in the Walk for Development.

The year was highlighted by the annual camping trip at which new members were inducted into the club. In addition to service and social activities, GAA encouraged good sportsmanship and tried to develop qualities of leadership among members.

National Honor

Sponsored by Mr. Ritt, Southwest's chapter of the National Honor Society delved into several new activities in 1970-71. Honor Roll Teas for those students achieving "A" honor roll were given every six weeks. They included some form of entertainment as well as refreshments.

The major role of the society was to sponsor a tutoring program for those students desiring academic help. Over 200 students participated.

Also new was the holding of the induction ceremony as a school assembly, inviting some of the student body to observe. National Honor produced a "Brain Brawl" team which was entered in the district meet.

Officers were: Amy Aidman, president; Marie Giliberti, vice-president; Linda Weeks, secretary; David Hartman, treasurer.

Science Club

New to Southwest in 1970, the Science Club was formed under the direction of Colonel Barnes. The club consisted of a group of students who held a common interest in science.

Among the various club activities were lectures by guest speakers, and field trips. Many fund raising projects were held throughout the year to pay for an ad in the Aquila.

Officers were: Karen Forman, president; Lynn Houlberg, vice-president; Janet Solberg, secretary; and Ruby Acosta, treasurer.

NFL

Mrs. Wilson, the sponsor of SW's National Forensic League, strove to teach its members the proper methods of public speaking and debate.

They went on field trips every week possible to compete in debate contests. Their goals were to speak well enough to participate in state-wide and possibly nation-wide debate tournaments.

top: Bill Rogers, Dennis Lefebvre and Jim Miller.
gang and Clark Caplan looked over a speech. left:

Math Honor

Math Honor Society's major activity of the year was the tutoring of any math students who asked for help. In keeping with the society's purpose of inspiring interest in math, a speaker presented a program at each meeting on some aspect of advanced mathematics.

The Math Contest on March 9 was sponsored by Math Honor. An award was given to the student scoring highest from each level course, as well as the overall winner. The three students scoring highest in the school went on to compete as a team in state competition.

Officers were: David Brown, president; Sue Cookson, vice-president; Sue Patterson, recording secretary; Amy Aidman, corresponding secretary; Sarah Hein, treasurer. Mr. DiRienzo and Miss Shafer were sponsors.

Hialeah

An unyielding Hialeah defense canned the Eagles first bid for victory on September 18 at Hialeah Stadium, by pushing past SW 12-1.

The Eagles scored first when Lindsey Plummer tackled Hialeah's Greg Sanjuria in the end zone for a safety. Hialeah came right back with a 97 yard touchdown drive to lead 6-2.

Hialeah stopped the Eagles only offensive drive on the 4 yard line. They then scored their final touchdown with less than 2 minutes to play.

upper right: Quarterback Bob Heath handed off to Johnny Williams. right: John Williams carried on a touchdown drive.

On Friday, September 25, at Central, SW slipped past the Palmetto Panthers 18-14.

Halfback Johnny Williams ran for two scores, first on a 7 yard end run, then on a 38 yard bomb from quarterback Bobby Heath.

The score wasn't as rosy earlier in the game as the Panthers jumped to a fast 14-0 lead late in the second quarter. Palmetto gained 237 yards on the ground, as compared to 152 yards for the Eagles.

However, SW was able to capitalize on Palmetto's mistakes; a dropped punt set up one Eagle touchdown and a recovered pitchout by Jerry Anderson led to another. With 10:42 left to play, quarterback Heath connected with Rick Carl for another six points. The conversion failed and the Eagles won 18-14.

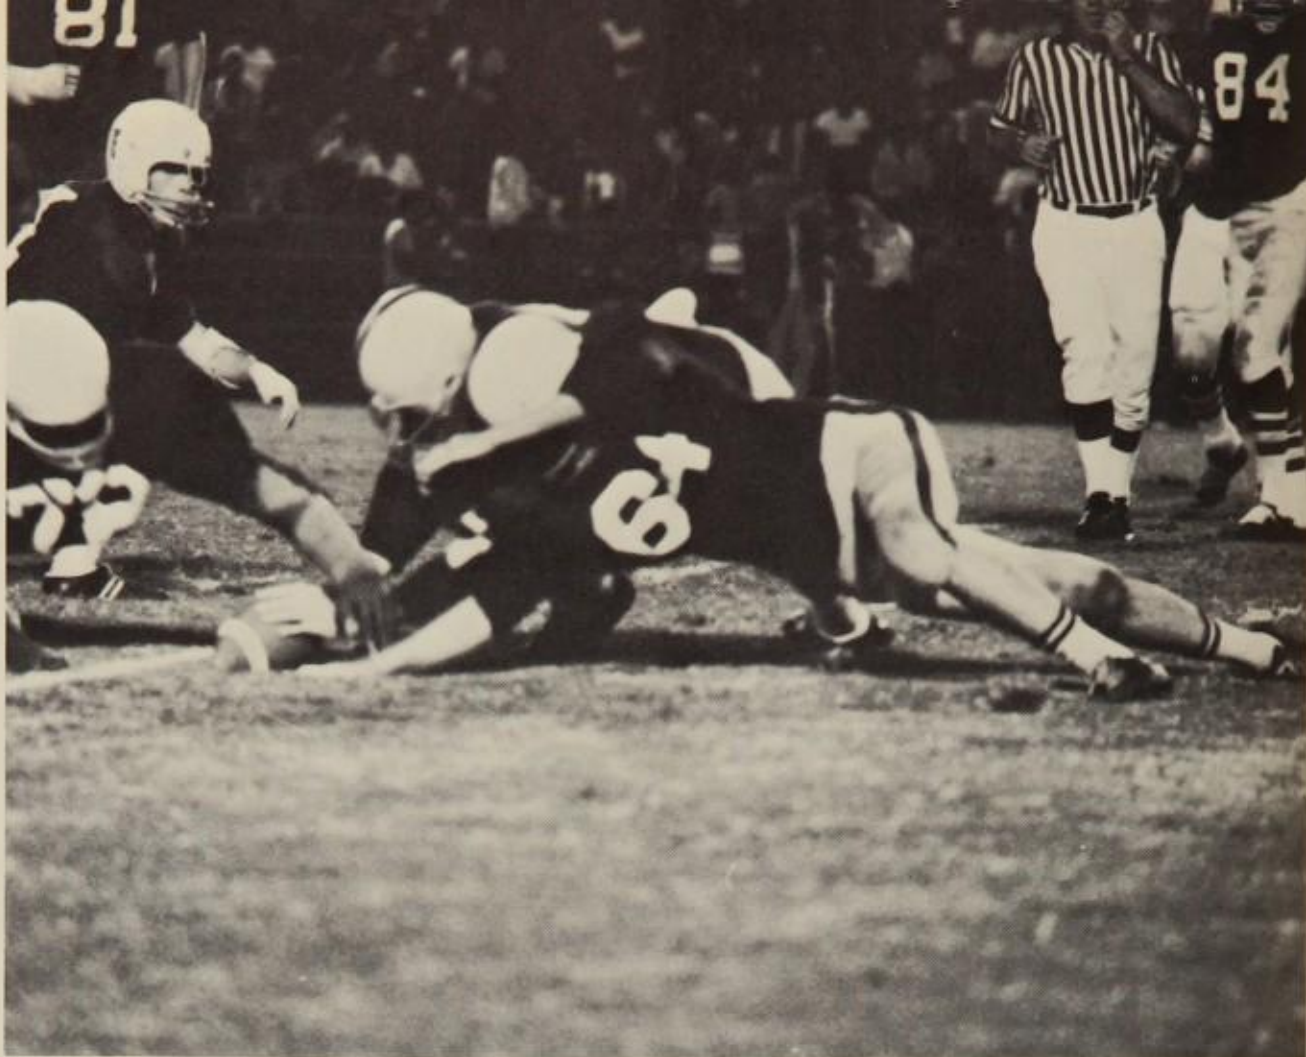

Killian

The Eagles, led by John Williams, smashed the Cougar machine 19-12 on October 1 at Central.

The first quarter opened as Killian capitalized on Southwest's mistakes by intercepting a pass and recovering a fumble. With 8:14 left in the half, Killian scored but missed the point after. The half ended with Killian leading 6-0.

The third quarter began with Williams taking the pitch and scampering 68 yards for the touchdown. The point after failed. Killian stopped another Eagle drive by recovering a fumble with 5:36 left in the quarter.

Williams then scored another touchdown on a 2 yard plunge. Killian also scored in the second half. With the score tied 12-12 and time running out Williams grabbed a flair pass from reserve quarterback Joe Glevenyak and scooted 30 yards for the touchdown. Rod Huffman's point after was good, ending the game 19-12.

Miami Beach

Purple Power prevailed at Central, October 16, as the high flying Eagles ripped past Miami Beach 13-0. Neither team could mount any strong offensive attack until late in the half after the ball had changed hands eight times.

With eight minutes left in the half, quarterback Bob Heath (13) unleashed a 55 yard touchdown pass to Rick Carl (19). Rod Huffman (86) added the extra point and the half ended 7-0.

It was not until late in the fourth quarter that the Eagles struck again. With 5:33 left on the clock, Johnny Williams (44) saw his chance and broke off tackles, sprinting 70 yards into the end zone.

Miami High

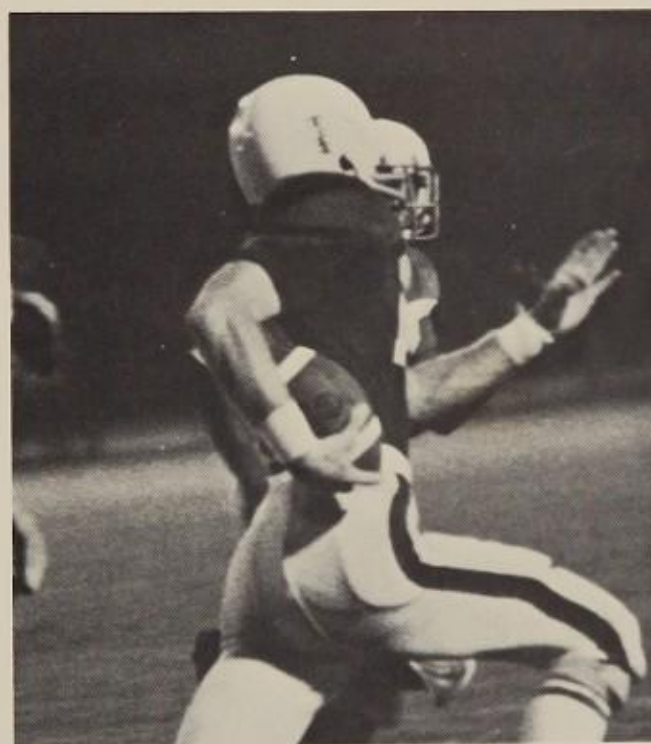

The SW offense and defense were both in perfect form, as the Eagles slaughtered Miami High 37-13 on Thursday, October 22, at Central.

On the third play of the game, SW recovered a MH fumble on their own 23. In four short runs John Williams (44) scored.

In the second quarter, shortly after Huffman's 24 yard field goal, Williams ran four plays for another TD. With 14 seconds left in the half, the Stingarees recovered a blocked punt on the SW 4, but with nine seconds to go, the Eagle defense held, ending the half 17-0.

In the second half, MH scored twice, to match Bob Horback's (35) two touchdown runs. In the closing seconds of the game, Stan Vogt intercepted a pass, setting up a 5 yard touchdown run by Joe Coats.

Coral Park

The Eagles romped over the Coral Park Rams 21-7 October 29 at Central.

SW's first score was set up on a Bob Heath (13) to Ted Knight (16) 50 yard bomb. Rick Carl (19) then scored on a 10 yard pass. Four minutes later Heath found Carl for another TD pass.

Keith Block (83) recovered a Ram fumble early in the second half. John Williams (44) then scored on a 30 yard run. All of Huffman's (86) kicks were good. Coral Park's only TD came late in the fourth quarter, ending the game 21-7.

Miami Springs

The Eagles made use of an excellent second half to whip Miami Springs 28-14, November 6 at Central.

In the first quarter, Bob Heath (13) completed a quarterback sneak at the Springs one yard line, for the first touchdown. Shortly after, Springs made their first touchdown and tied the game 7-7.

With 8:10 left in the half, Bob Horback (35) took a Heath hand-off for a 15 yard run and SW's second TD.

Bob Heath then threw a 22 yard touchdown pass to Ed Beckman (89). John Williams (44) scored the last touchdown on a 29 yard run.

Columbus

A surprised Southwest team was upset by Columbus on Friday, November 13, at Central.

The Eagles struck first as Bob Heath (13) went for a five yard end sweep for Southwest's only TD. Rod Huffman's kick was good. Columbus then scored their first TD, adding two points to lead 8-7. For two quarters neither team could get their offensive off the ground as mistakes dampened both sides chances to score.

In the fourth quarter, Columbus scored on a 96 yard drive covering nine minutes of play.

South Dade

The South Dade "powerhouse" romped over Southwest 21-6 on November 19, at Central.

The first quarter was a defensive battle without scoring. The only score in the first half was by South Dade's Nathaniel Bientou.

South Dade scored twice in the second half on two runs, one after recovering a SW fumble. The only Eagle TD was on a Bill Bastin to Rick Carl post pattern pass. The attempted two points failed.

Coral Gables

The Southwest Eagles lost to the Coral Gables Cavaliers 23-9 despite an excellent first half, Thursday, Nov. 26, at the annual Thanksgiving Day game.

Southwest controlled the football for all but three plays of the first quarter. A 33-yard pass from quarterback Bobby Heath (13) to Rick Carl (19) put the Eagles in scoring range. But after Neal Colzie blitzed Heath for a six-yard loss, Huffman (86) kicked a 24-yard field goal. Gables scored once in the second quarter.

In the third quarter Gables scored another TD on a 15 yard pass. Two points were added when Bill Bastin (12) was forced out of the pocket to throw. SW scored last when Rod Huffman's punt was fumbled and recovered by Don Lambright (23) on the 30 yard line. Penalties against Gables moved the ball to the 10. Heath handed off to Williams (44) who ran for the TD, ending the game 23-9.

J.V. Football

The Junior Varsity football team had a winning year in 1970. They finished the season with five wins and three losses.

The team concentrated on a running attack. Two tight ends were used with most of their yardage gained running outside.

During the season the team suffered no shutouts and averaged three touchdowns per game. Their leading scorer was offensive end Jerry Montgomery, who made nine touchdowns.

The girls' team ran into difficulty despite the efforts of Diane Utley and Linda Todd.

John Werner and Steve Augenbaugh were co-captains of the boys' team, and Rita Donnelly was the girls' team captain. Coach Boydston took over the reins for his first year as coach.

Assistant Principals

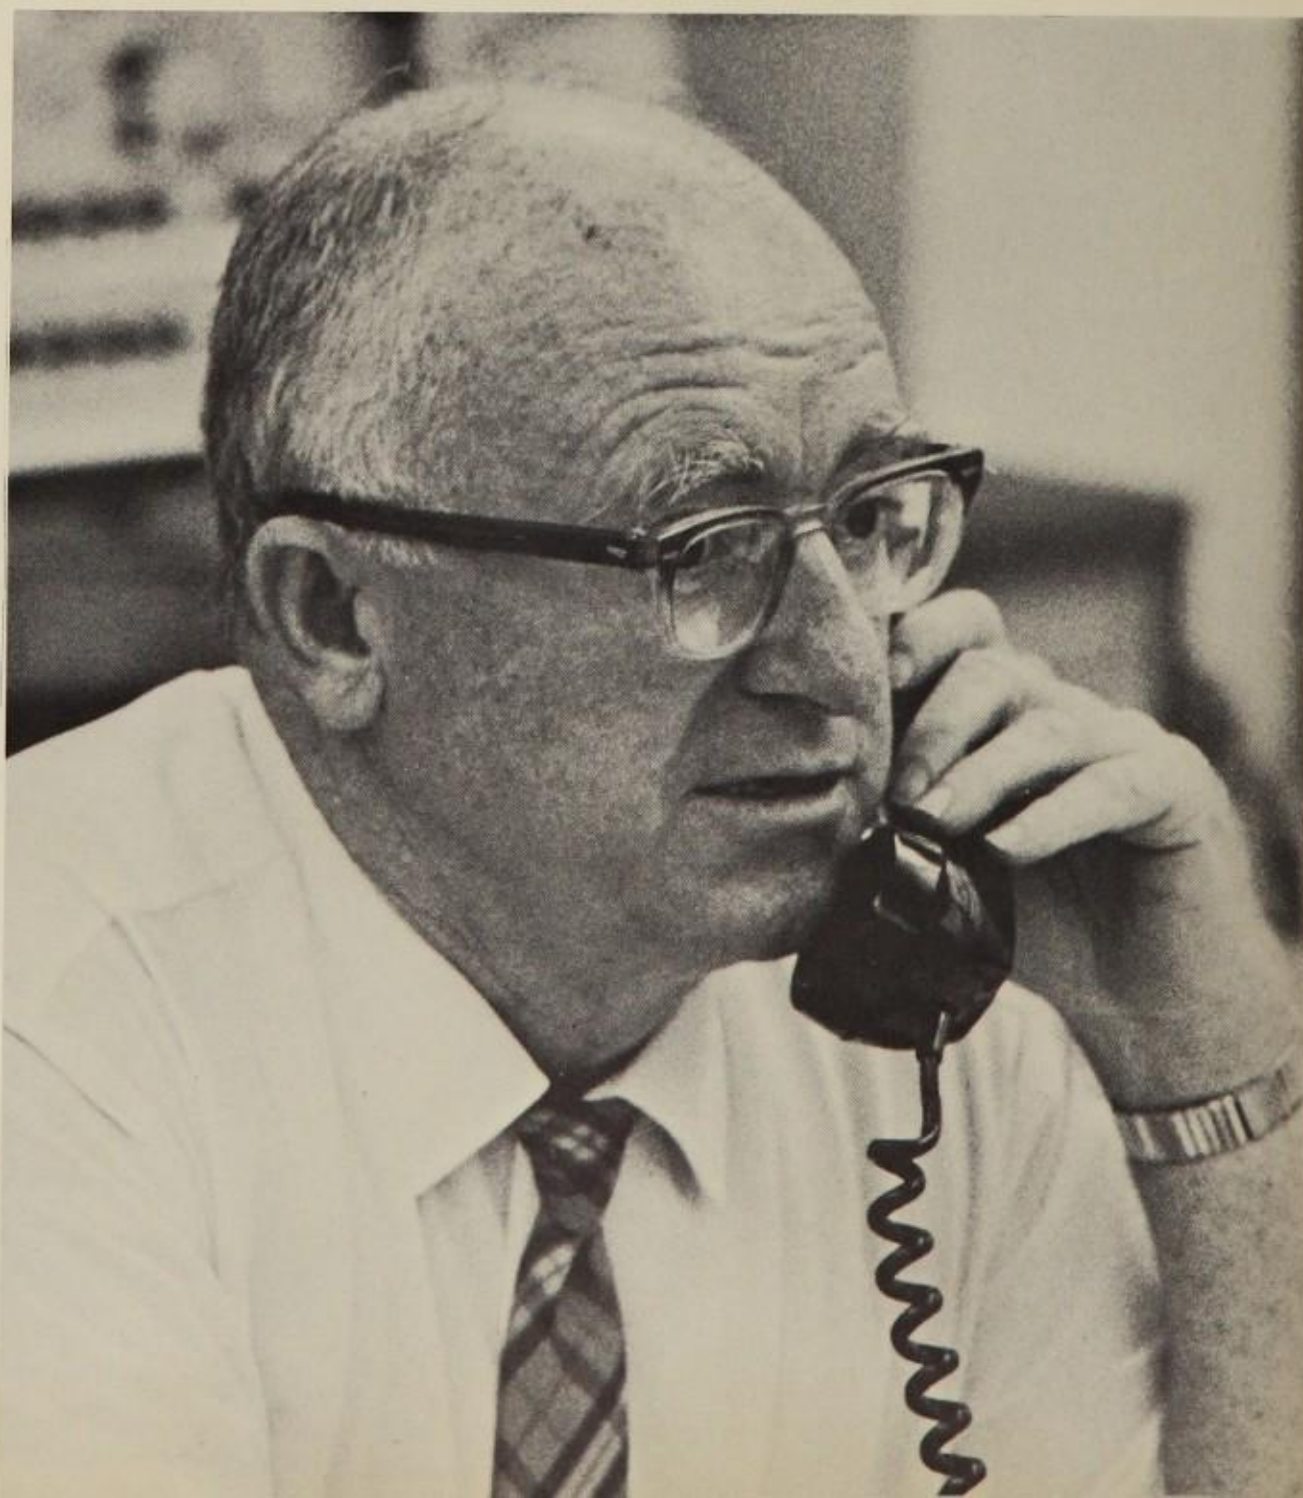

Five very important people at Southwest, known as the assistant principals, tackled problems in the areas of guidance, attendance, and curriculum.

Mr. Arvin Maggard and Mrs. Judith Ellison worked to plan next year's curriculum. Many courses were based on opinions of students expressed through a survey.

Supervisor of counseling was Mrs. Miriam Pratt. In charge of attendance were Mr. Carl Stuart and Mr. Harold Mitchell. Mr. Alvin Maggard was assistant principal for vocational education and Mrs. Judy Ellison worked as the assistant principal for curriculum. Together with Mr. Allsworth, the assistant principals added to a good year for Southwest.

Counselors

The counselors were headed by Mrs. Pratt, the new assistant principal for guidance, who brought fresh ideas that improved the counseling process at Southwest.

For the first time there were unscheduled free periods in which the students could speak with their counselor without formalized appointments. Also a first at Southwest was the group therapy session where students were counseled in groups. Through these new processes the student was able to see more of his busy counselor whose counseling load included 400 other students.

School Assistants

The school assistants of Southwest contributed greatly in the successful outcome of the first split session school year.

The guidance office, under the direction of Mrs. Van Dyke, prepared information and posted bulletins for seniors planning college educations. Next years schedules, agreed upon by underclassmen and their counselor's, were prepared by them, also.

The attendance office led by Mrs. Whitehurst, offered assistance to Southwest students. This staff, besides maintaining close contact with students, ran an efficient office which helped all.

Mr. Allsworth

Mr. Allsworth had to deal with many new problems this year that were created by the split shift. The most pressing of which was a reluctance of the student body and their parents to accept shift assignments.

For the first time at Southwest a student-faculty advisory committee was set up to work with Mr. Allsworth in matters of curriculum and student affairs. The proposal to co-ordinate such a committee was made through the Student Council.

Mr. Allsworth earned his bachelor's degree at the University of Arizona and then went on for his master's degree at the University of Miami. He became principal of Southwest in 1962.

English

For the first time in ten years, all three years of required English classes received the benefit of small classroom instruction, a welcome change for both students and teachers. Encouraging imaginative teaching and exploring new materials and techniques, the English Department provided instruction in different levels of required English courses. Opportunity was offered for students to pursue interests in Drama, Debate and Journalism and to elect courses in Contemporary Literature, Creative Writing, Speech and Vocabulary.

Science

A new science class was added at Southwest in 1970. The "Ecology and Natural History of Florida" course was met with much enthusiasm, showing the students desire for novel material. The textbook for this unique elective was written during the school year by Mr. Climer. It will be adopted as a state text throughout Florida in 1971.

Mr. Schmeisser's physics classes went on field trips, one of which was to Cape Kennedy.

Social Studies

Mrs. Roberts and Mrs. Stinson, the Social Studies Department's two new teachers, helped students to gain knowledge in History and Psychology. Courses in "Negro Culture" and "Lost Humanities and Latin American International Studies" were also novel.

Coupled with the regular classes of World Geography, World History, U.S. History, and U.S. Government, they provided students with pertinent material about this and other cultures.

Language

In an attempt to make the Language courses offered at Southwest more interesting, Mrs. Ramirez, Dept. Head, started a program to increase the amount of language books available to students in the library. She also obtained films and filmstrips to liven up classrooms while teaching culture and history of the countries that speak that language. Students could be instructed in Spanish, German, French and Latin.

The Language Dept. chose and sent an outstanding Spanish student to the Society of Dade County Spanish Teachers in an attempt to win the scholarship offered by that organization.

Math

A new course aimed to heighten students' interest in Math was started by Miss Shafer. This was a consumer math course based on usage of math in everyday life.

Mrs. Barna was new to the department and replaced Mrs. Kratz. Other teachers taught math as well as subjects like Spanish and electronics.

The Mathematics Department was headed by Mr. DiRienzo.

Music

The Music Department, the largest elective department at Southwest, put in another fine year of working and performing.

The department included orchestra, theory classes, band, and choruses. Mr. Woodworth was in charge of Concert Orchestra and Orchestra II. He also taught Theory classes I and II. Mr. Baker directed the Concert, Stage, Symphonic, and Marching Bands.

The choruses included Girls' and Boys' Chorus, General Mixed and General Girls' Concert Chorus. The total number of students in the Music Department was 650.

Art

Headed by Miss Kowalchuk, the Art Department of SW delved into the fields of acetate and film production as well as the making of macramae, a knotting process using rope or cloth. Students taking art went on field trips to the Miami Art Center and the Lowe Gallery.

Meanwhile, the Commercial Art Department utilized their talents in poster and art competitions, play promotion, silk screen processes, and the making of Christmas cards.

During the year, their teacher, Mr. Mazzuchelli, took them on field trips to art shows and several printing companies.

Metal Shop

Metal Shop, under the direction of Mr. Veber, undertook another interesting and prosperous year. The course consisted of Metal Shops I, II, and III.

The basic classes studied machine shop work, while the more advanced did welding and electroplating. They also designed and built the benches which were placed throughout the school.

To complete the year, the students designed and built a wrought iron lawn set which consisted of tables with chairs.

Woodshop

Students taking woodshop were encouraged to create something original. This course combined wood working with education.

The basic woodshop classes taught by Mr. Green made simple furniture. Mr. Campbell, with assistant, Mr. Bloknick, taught advanced classes, who designed furniture such as gun cases, boats, cedar chests, stereo cabinets, book cases, desks, chairs and tables.

Auto Mechanics

The Southwest Automotive Mechanics class centered on the present. It attempted to train its students in such a manner as to make them qualified for immediate employment.

Teachers Mr. Myers and Mr. Halcomb gave their classes first hand experiences by taking them to various car dealers as well as to an auto rebuilding center.

Aviation

Aviation is one of the most unusual and practical subjects in the vocational department. Students in the aviation program attend Southwest for one-half of the day, and the George T. Baker Aviation School the remaining half. At the aviation school they studied sheet metal, air frames, power plants, welding, aviation maintenance, wood and fabric, and hydro-electronics. The subject was made exciting and interesting because of the practical experience the students gained.

Electronics

Instructed by Mr. Edenfield and Mr. Wilson, the students of the newly organized electronics course studied toward their goal of building a ham radio station.

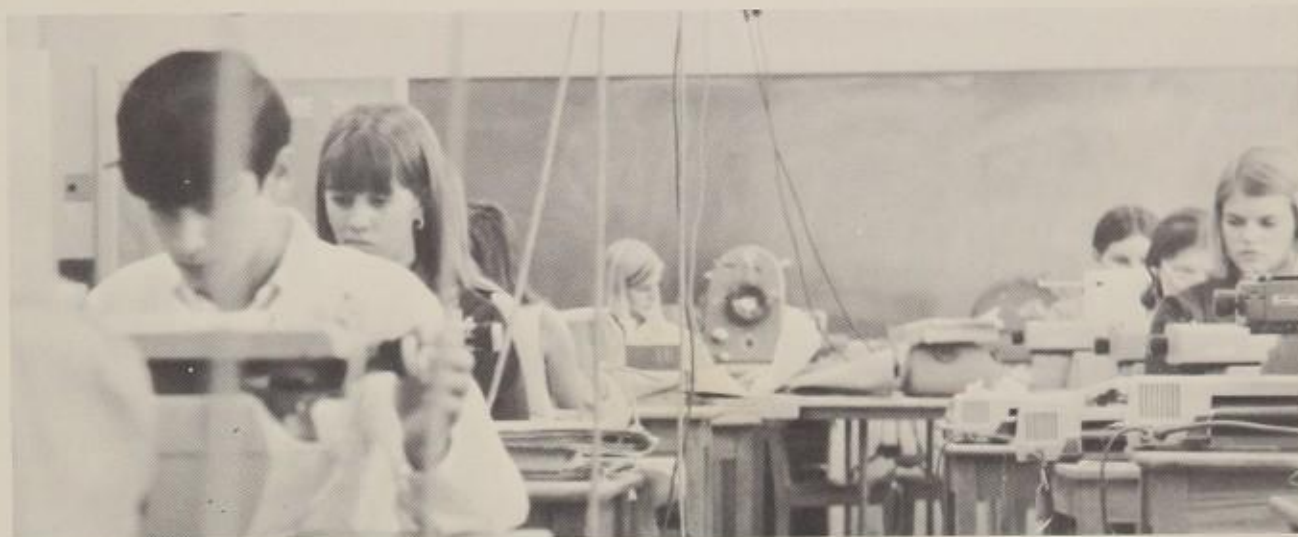

Breaking the toil of constructing this far reaching device were field trips to local electronic companies, as well as to the Solitron Corporation in Riviera Beach.

Business

Southwest's business department was active in preparing students for responsibilities after graduation. They assisted the school's various organizations and helped students to familiarize themselves with business functions. Some of the available courses were Business Law, Business English, and Consumer Economics. Miss Jack was department head.

Boys' P.E.

The Physical Education department of Southwest strove to have a program which would be interesting and beneficial to all students who participated. For the first time they offered health and safety programs to all 10th graders along with Driver's Ed. both at SW and in the county.

Phys. Ed. was one of the few departments which offered interest grouping, which afforded students the opportunity to select any activity they chose. Students had the choice between golf, tennis, weight training, wrestling, gymnastics, speed ball, gator ball, paddle tennis, swimming, archery, badminton, and routine activities.

Coach Levin, a teacher at SW for 15 years, was department head.

Girls' Phys. Ed.

In addition to their regular activities, the Girl's Physical Education Department formed a modern dance club. Also new was a game called speed-way, similar to soccer. The favorites among the girls, however, were the routine sports such as tennis, softball, and volleyball.

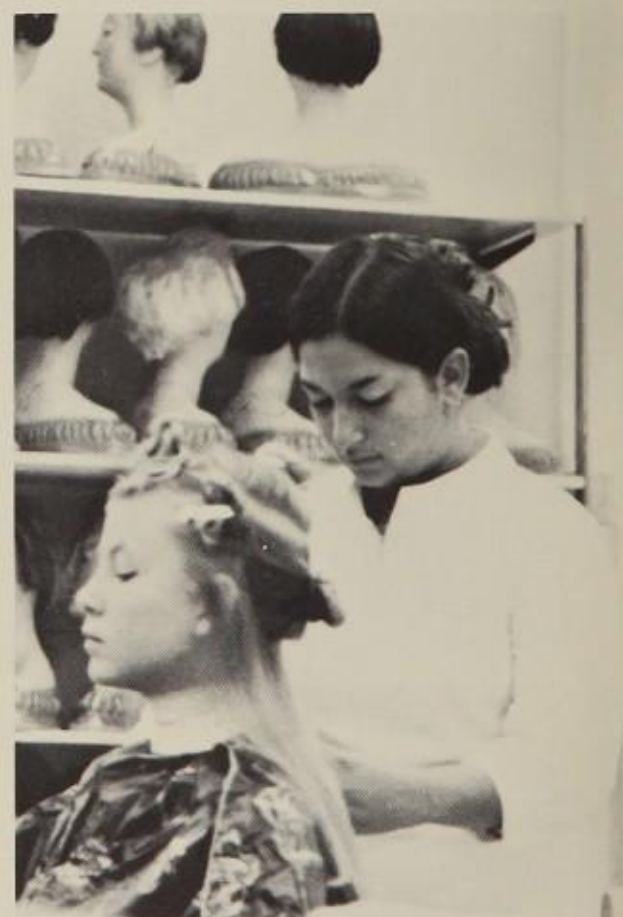

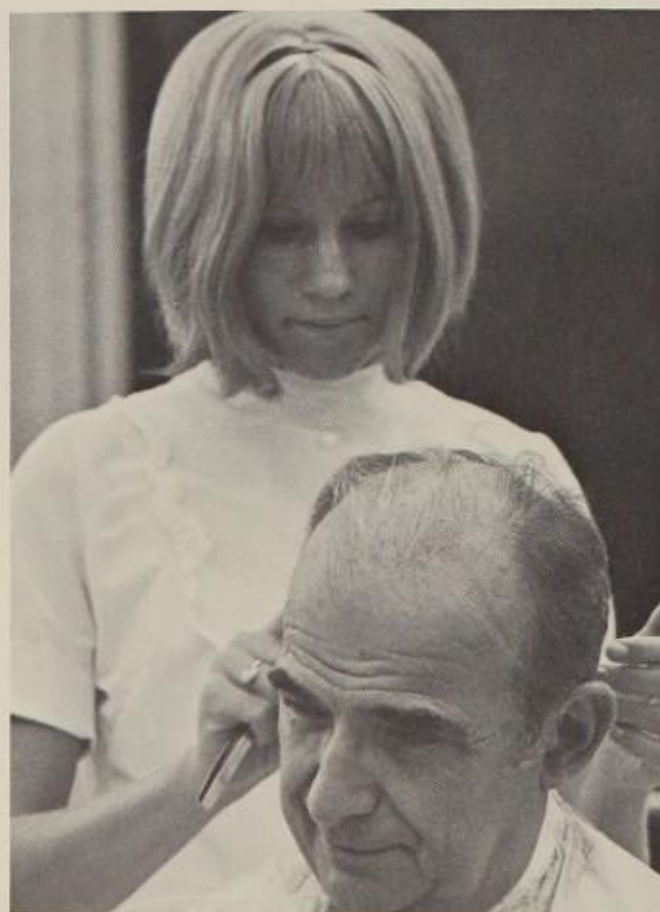

New teachers in the department were Mrs. Gaines, Miss Maples, and Miss Murtha. The department head was Mrs. Kynn.

upper right: Miss Maples prepared a record for modern dancing. center: Jill Hanson; above: Miss Bassett and Miss Murtha; far right: Miss Geraghty; and Mrs. Kynn compared notes. right: Miss David.

Cosmetology

Under the supervision of department-head Mrs. Krizbacker, the cosmetology class got off to a busy start. In addition to their regular activities, male hair grooming was a part of the format. The students set up a clinic for men, where they treated the guys to popular style-cuts, colorings, straightenings, and shaping. Students also learned to style male wigs, latest fad, in addition to regular wig styling and hair-care.

Home Ec.

Students interested in Home Economics were offered an excellent opportunity to gain practical experience in everyday living. Mrs. Bootes and Mrs. Knesal directed the students in such areas as cooking, sewing, child development, family living, textiles, housing and home furnishings and nutrition and food. Sewing students kept up with the latest fashions by making a pantsuit and a maxi or midi.

Prayer Meetings

Reading the Bible and praying were only part of the daily prayer meetings held outside Southwest before each shift. The group also invited non-Christians to join them in discussions relating the Bible to their everyday lives.

Not only the traditional King James version of the Bible was used, but also Good News for Modern Man and Reach Out, which were contemporary versions of the New Testament written in everyday language.

DESIDERATA

G O PLACIDLY AMID THE NOISE & HASTE, & REMEMBER WHAT PEACE THERE MAY BE IN SILENCE. AS FAR AS POSSIBLE WITHOUT surrender be on good terms with all persons. Speak your truth quietly & clearly; and listen to others, even the dull & ignorant; they too have their story. ♣ Avoid loud & aggressive persons, they are vexations to the spirit. If you compare yourself with others, you may become vain & bitter; for always there will be greater & lesser persons than yourself. Enjoy your achievements as well as your plans. ♣ Keep interested in your own career, however humble; it is a real possession in the changing fortunes of time. Exercise caution in your business affairs; for the world is full of trickery. But let this not blind you to what virtue there is; many persons strive for high ideals; and everywhere life is full of heroism. ♣ Be yourself. Especially, do not feign affection. Neither be cynical about love; for in the face of all aridity & disenchantment it is perennial as the grass. ♣ Take kindly the counsel of the years, gracefully surrendering the things of youth. Nurture strength of spirit to shield you in sudden misfortune. But do not distress yourself with imaginings. Many fears are born of fatigue & loneliness. Beyond a wholesome discipline, be gentle with yourself. ♣ You are a child of the universe, no less than the trees & the stars; you have a right to be here. And whether or not it is clear to you, no doubt the universe is unfolding as it should. ♣ Therefore be at peace with God, whatever you conceive Him to be, and whatever your labors & aspirations, in the noisy confusion of life keep peace with your soul. ♣ With all its sham, drudgery & broken dreams, it is still a beautiful world. Be careful. Strive to be happy. ♣ ♣
